DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because the “upper sections 52a” and the “dovetail section 52b” mentioned on page 11 lines 20 and 22 are not numbered in the drawings. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: page 2, line 31, “stoppe” should be –stopped—and the “d” on the next line should be deleted; page 7, line 11,

Art Unit: 3654

--degrees—should be added after “90”; page 7, line 20, --of—should be added after “capable”; page 11, line 8, a comma should be added after “Fig. 5”; and page 21, line 1, “with the invention disclosed in claim 3 of this application” should be deleted.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, line 12, “another opposing support means” inaccurately implies that there are two opposing pairs of “support means”. Further in claims 1 and 2 the terms “capable of” and “possible to” are considered vague since it is unclear whether the functions associated with these terms are meant to be a positive part of the combinations. In claim 3/2, line 2, “the pressure change assigning means” is without proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3654

6. Claims 1 and 3/1 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by either of JP '786 or JP '104. Either of these documents decreases the distance between the roll supports upon detection of slip by changing the pressure force of at least one support member against the roll core. Any slip during emergency braking would inherently be compensated by increasing the pressure force of the support member against the roll core, meeting the terms of these claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 2 and 3/2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either of JP '786 or JP '104 in view of Hatakeyama et al. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the expandable contact members reciprocating in dovetail grooves as shown in Hatakeyama et al for the core chucks of either of the JP documents to provide better support of the roll cores and to more effectively release the roll cores after use.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kajiwara, Clarke, Miller et al and Koutonen et al are cited to show other roll support devices.
